III. Share capital

1. The share capital of the Company shall amount to 3,000,092.00 (three million and ninety-two) zlotys and shall be divided into 3,000,092 shares, each share having the nominal value of 1.00 (one) zloty, in the following manner:
 - 102,000 (one hundred and two thousand) A series registered shares bearing numbers from 000001 to 102000,
 - 849,000 (eight hundred and forty-nine thousand) B series registered shares bearing numbers from 000001 to 849000,
 - 450,000 (four hundred and fifty thousand) C series bearer shares bearing numbers from 000001 to 450000,
 - 889,092 (eight hundred eighty-nine thousand and ninety-two) D series registered shares bearing numbers from 000001 to 889.092,
 - 710,000 (seven hundred and ten thousand) E series bearer shares bearing numbers from 000001 to 710000.
2. The shares in the Company may be both registered shares and bearer shares.
3. A series shares shall be registered preference shares being preferential as to the voting right at the General Assembly in such a manner that each share shall entitle to 5 (five) votes.
4. B series shares shall be non-preference registered shares.
5. C series shares shall be non-preference bearer shares.
6. D series shares shall be non-preference registered shares.
7. E series shares shall be non-preference bearer shares.
8. The shares in the subsequent issues may be covered with cash or in-kind contributions.

The profits designated by the General Assembly for distribution among the shareholders shall be divided in proportion to the shares participating in the dividends.

1. The change of A series registered shares into bearer shares may be effected upon a written application of the shareholder and a prior written consent of all the promoters of the Company being, at the moment of granting the consent, the Company's shareholders.

In case of such a change the preferential status of the share as to the voting rights shall expire.

2. The option of changing the bearer share into the registered share is excluded.
3. In case A series shares are sold, the other holders of A series shares shall have a pre-emptive right to purchase the said shares in accordance with the following provisions.
4. The holder of shares shall notify the Supervisory Board of his intent to sell the shares and indicate the proposed buyer, price and number of shares to be sold.
5. The Chairman of the Supervisory Board shall inform the other holders of A series shares about the intent and conditions for selling the shares within two weeks and about the number of shares that may be bought by individual shareholders.
6. Within four weeks of receipt of such information, the other holders of A series shares shall present to the Supervisory Board statements concerning the purchase of the shares that they may buy in proportion to the number of registered shares they hold.
7. Failure to present, within the stipulated time-limit, the statement on exercising the pre-emptive right to purchase the shares shall be treated as the waiver of the said right.
8. In case anyone of the other holders of A series shares does not wish to buy the shares assigned to him, such shares may be bought by the other holders in proportion to the number of A series shares already held.
9. The Supervisory Board shall inform the holders about such an option within a week of the receipt of the statement of the shareholder who waives the pre-emptive right of purchase.
10. In such a case the other holders of A series shares shall, within three weeks of sending the notification, present to the Supervisory Board the statements concerning the purchase of the shares.
11. In case of dispute concerning the price, the A series shares shall be valued at the value corresponding to an average stock exchange price from the last 3 months, the shares being listed on the Warsaw Stock Exchange, regardless of the preferential status of the shares.
12. In case the Company's shares are not listed on the Warsaw Stock Exchange and where the Company's shares have been listed on the Warsaw Stock Exchange for the period of less than 3 (three) months, the price shall be established by an independent expert appointed by the Supervisory Board.
13. The shares which have not been purchased by the other holders of A series shares may be sold to a person indicated in the notification mentioned in Item 4 of this Article.

14. In case A series registered shares are sold to other persons than the promoters of the Company, the preferential status of the shares shall expire.
15. However, the preferential status of the shares may be maintained in case of a written consent of all the promoters of the Company being, at the moment of granting the consent, the shareholders of the Company.

1. The Company's shares may be redeemed. The shares shall be redeemed from net profit or by reduction of the share capital.
2. The share may be redeemed upon the consent of the shareholder by way of buying the share by the Company (voluntary redemption) or without the consent of the shareholder (forced redemption).
 2. The voluntary redemption shall be conditional on adoption by the General Assembly of a resolution within that scope and the shareholder whose shares are to be redeemed must vote for the resolution. In case such a resolution is adopted, the Company shall pay to the shareholder whose shares are to be the subject of redemption the amount, specified in the resolution, corresponding to the market value of the shares.
 3. The forced redemption may be effected with regard to the shareholder who took actions which were clearly contradictory to the interests of the Company or the other shareholders. The redemption shall be conditional on the adoption by the General Assembly, by majority of three fourths of the votes cast, a resolution within that scope. Within a month of the date of adoption of the said resolution the shareholder whose shares were redeemed shall be paid the amount corresponding to the market value of the shares. The market value of the shares shall be established in accordance with the principles being analogous to those stipulated in § 8 Item 6 of the Statutes.
 4. The forced redemption may be effected in particular if:
 - a) enforcement proceedings against the shareholder's shares were instituted, unless the enforcement proceedings are not discontinued within 3 months,
 - b) the shareholder was incapacitated or if there is another significant reason concerning the shareholder.

§ 10

1. The Company's Management Board shall be authorized, pursuant to Art. 444 of the Code of Commercial Companies, for the period not longer than by March 31, 2011, to increase the share capital by the amount not exceeding 360,000 (in words: three hundred and sixty thousand) zlotys (authorized capital).
2. The Management Board may exercise the authorization mentioned in Item 1 by effecting one or several subsequent share capital increases within the limits stipulated in Item 1.
3. The Management Board of the Company may issue shares, within the authorized capital, only in exchange for cash contributions and may not issue preference shares or grant to the shareholder any personal rights referred to in Art. 354 of the Code of Commercial Companies.
4. The Management Board shall be authorized to deprive the shareholders of the pre emptive right in part or in whole upon the consent of the Supervisory Board. The authorization shall refer to each share capital increase within the authorized capital.

5. The Management Board may exercise the authorization granted thereto upon the consent of the Supervisory Board. The consent of the Supervisory Board should be granted in the form of a resolution adopted by majority of three fourths of the votes of the Supervisory Board members being present at the meeting with at least half of the number of the Supervisory Board members being present.
6. The resolution of the Management Board of the Company adopted in accordance with § 10 Item 1-5 shall replace the resolution of the General Assembly on the increase of the share capital and require the form of a notarial deed in order to be valid.

The pledgee or usufructuary of the shares may not exercise the voting right attached to the registered shares on which a pledge or usufruct has been created.

IV. Company governing bodies

§ 12

The Company governing bodies are:

- A. the General Assembly,
- B. the Supervisory Board,
- C. the Management Board.

A. General Assembly

1. The General Assembly shall be convened by the Management Board as the Ordinary or Extraordinary General Assembly.
2. The General Assembly shall be held at the seat of the Company or in Warsaw.
3. The Ordinary General Assembly shall be held not later than by the end of June each year.
4. If the Management Board fails to convene the Ordinary General Assembly within the stipulated time-limit, the Supervisory Board shall be entitled to convene the General Assembly.

1. The Extraordinary General Assembly shall be convened by:
 - a) the Management Board:
 - on its own initiative,

- upon the application of the Supervisory Board,
 - upon the application of the shareholders representing in total at least one twentieth of the share capital
- b) subjects and bodies authorized on the basis of commercial law regulations.
2. The Company's Management Board, having received an appropriate application, shall be obligated to immediately convene the Extraordinary General Assembly, save as for § 13 Item 3.
 3. If the Management Board of the Company fails to convene the Extraordinary General Assembly within the stipulated time-limit, the following shall have the right to convene the Extraordinary General Assembly:
 - the shareholders filing an application to convene the General Assembly, upon obtaining the authorisation of the Registry Court,
 - the Supervisory Board, if the Supervisory Board applied to the Management Board for the convention of the Extraordinary General Assembly.

1. The General Assembly shall be convened by publishing an announcement in the way and time defined in commercial law regulations.
2. The agenda of the General Assembly shall be published in the announcement.

1. The person or body convening the General Assembly shall determine the agenda taking into account the motions made.
2. The motions to place particular matters on the agenda of the General Assembly shall be presented to the Management Board by the shareholder (shareholders) representing at least one twentieth of the share capital in the way and time defined in the commercial law regulations.

1. All the shareholders shall have the right to participate in the General Assembly in person or by proxy.

The power of attorney should be granted in writing, or else it shall be invalid, and attached to the minutes of the General Assembly, unless the commercial law regulations provide otherwise.

The employees of the Company and members of the Management Board of the Company may not serve as proxies.

2. The shareholders holding shares admitted to public trading shall have the right to participate in the General Assembly under the terms defined in commercial law regulations.
3. The members of the Company governing bodies and persons designated by the Management Board to serve the General Assembly shall also have the right to participate in the General Assembly.

1. The General Assembly shall be capable of adopting resolutions if it has been properly convened.

2. Each share shall entitle to one vote at the General Assembly, unless it is a preference share being preferential as to the voting right.
3. Resolutions of the General Assembly shall be adopted by simple majority of the votes cast validly, unless the mandatory legal provisions or the Statutes expressly provide for otherwise.
4. The voting shall be open.
A secret vote shall be ordered in the case of elections and motions for the dismissal of members of the Company governing bodies or the liquidators, on holding them liable as well as on personal matters or at the request of at least one of the persons present at the General Assembly.

§ 19

1. The subject matter of the Ordinary General Assembly should be:
